REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

There being only three scholars in town, we deemed it to their best advantage to attend the school in Hillsboro in the Spring and Fall, rather than run a school here in Windsor. Considering it too hard for such small children to go so far in the Winter, we decided to have a term of twelve weeks in Windsor, ten weeks of which have already been taught by Sadie G. Downs. We consider Mrs. Downs a teacher of much ability and that she has taught a very successful term of school.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH R. NELSON,
ETTA G. NELSON,
WALTER A. JACOBS,
School Board of Windsor.
